“ I am so sorry to hear of your passing. Your grandparents were my neighbors for years and I am so glad to have known you. At least I got to see you last year when you came into my work. God bless

“ It is truly hard to express in words how great of a person my big brother Travis was. Unfortunately through circumstances we did not meet till our teenage years. At first Travis was a little timid and standoffish. Back then when he would come over to stay I had to give him my room. So late one night Travis asked if I could fix something on my TV and we bonded that night over South Park and reruns of The man show. We hung out all night laughing,talking, and finding out how much we had in common. After that night I realized that not only did gain a brother, but also a best friend. I have so many awesome memories with Travis. Most are not appropriate to share at this time...lol Maybe later at the gathering We partied together, We worked together , We laughed together, We were thick as thieves . I cherish every moment that we shared . What I wouldn't give to have just one more. Love you Bro! RIP till we meet again.

“ I remember finding out I had another nephew from my sister Cindy. You fit into this family like you were always apart from the beginning. I will remember the fun times, your smile, your laugh, your sense of humor. I can't believe that your not here. I will miss you always and it will not be the same without you.

“ I remember when my dad told me I had an older brother. I didn't know how to feel. Would we get along, would we be rivals for dads love? Then dad introduced me to Travis. Shy at first then an instant staple in my life. An instant coheart in crime. An best friend. An instant brother in all the sense of the word. His laugh and smile could make any situation a great time. So many memories of late night dance battles on the front porch. And getting into fun and trouble just being brothers. I wish we could have been brothers sooner but most I wish we could have been brothers longer. You will be missed more than you can imagine. I'll never be able to eat a Krystal burger, hear someone say "aww man", or listen to techno/dance song again without seeing your smile and hearing your laugh. I love you big brother...

“ Travis was one of the most caring and compassionate people to ever grace my life. His smile could light up a room and my heart! My life is forever blessed because he was a part of it. Thank you God for the privilege of being this child's stepmom. Till we meet again there will be an emptiness in my heart that is only for you. I love you sweet boy!
